Dedicated To

MR. LARRY LONG

A man who has worked hard for our comfort and health, kept our lawns and buildings clean, and made us feel more at home. His cheerful disposition and his friendly chats with us added much to our school days.

As a token of our appreciation for the many services he renders to all, we, the senior class, proudly dedicate this, the sixth edition of the Blue Jay.

Third Row: Hilda Hemric, Betty Triplett, Larry Mosteller, Sammy Johnson, Roger Myers, Dicky Randleman, Ray Foster, Wanda Harris, Shelby Swaim.

Future Teachers of America

Realization of the nation's increasing demand for more and better teachers has brought about the organization of F. T. A. clubs all over the nation.

The Jonesville F. T. A., the Anna Sullivan club, has as its chief purpose encouraging more young people to become teachers. Also emphasis is placed upon the student's cultivating character, health, mental keenness, personality, if they are to be good teachers of tomorrow. The F. T. A. gives practical experience in teaching because its members many times are asked to substitute for teachers in the elementary school.

The finishing touch

Quiet! Library corner

Watch closely now

Soft music helps you read better

Get right back up here and finish

More fun than books

Hey! now they are playing tag

Small world, isn't it?

Now all we need is the birds

Activities

This one is the best, Miss Pennik

What kind is this one?

Mrs. Canipe is this Frosty the Snow Man?

Be careful and don't get the paint on you

Mr. Hinshaw's crooners

Do they always look this serious
Mrs. Holcomb?

Could this be a dance?

Ready for Grub?

Class History

This is our high school life.

We became a class, as Freshmen, in the fall of 1952. Ninety-three strong, we composed the largest Freshman class in the history of Jonesville High School.

Inevitably, we became the object of much derision when the Seniors dressed us as "Mother Goose" characters on Initiation Day. Mrs. Hendren and Mr. Mathis helped us bear the chagrin honorably and like good sportsmen the Seniors gave us a "Consolation" party.

With fatherly guidance, Mr. Ingle turned our frowns into smiles and we began eagerly to share in school activities. The Freshmen contributed six players to the football team, three girls and two boys to the basketball teams, and nine voices to the Glee Club.

Victorious over final exams, we ended our first high school year.

* * * *

With three months of relaxation behind us we returned to school; some reluctant, some glad. Now Sophomores, we numbered seventy-three, all anxious to resume the duties of our educational ascent.

Under Mr. Smith and Mrs. Randleman we settled into the groove of learning, preparing for the time when we would take our places in life as men and women.

Into the light of sports our class sent twenty-one young athletes. Of these, eight played in basketball, nine in football, and four in the newly formed golf team.

Twenty-two Sophomores approximated half the voices in our Glee Club, which won top honors in the State Contest that year.

January 16, 1954, brought our first experience of tragedy, for tragic was the loss of our beloved principal, Mr. George Ingle. His unfailing faith yet remains with us as an inspiration toward success.

"School's out!" ended our Sophomore year in May and brought us a hard-earned vacation.

We had reached the halfway mark.

Vacation days passed with mysterious swiftness and we found ourselves back in school as Juniors with only seven heads missing.

The new principal, Mr. Thomas, greeted our expectant and somewhat skeptical faces warmly, assuring us of a big year.

Eight Junior boys bolstered the football team, which lost only one conference game, while nine of our class became first-string cagers.

Intelligence ebbed high when twenty of our intellects were admitted into the Beta Club. One of these served two years as President of that club.

Our Junior play, "Miss Minerva and William Greenhill," was a pleasurable experience for the whole school. Even the faculty came out smiling.

We closed our Junior year by giving Jonesville High's "best" Junior-Senior banquet and prom. The banquet was held in the school lunchroom. Our carousal was staged in the school gym to the theme of "Moonlight and Roses."

Such were the events that have made memorable our Junior year.

* * * *

At last we are Seniors.

We began our last high school year by initiating the Freshmen. Though somewhat resentful, they obediently dressed to the theme "dogpatch." To this judges' delight they enacted a skit of "Lil' Abner's Wedding." We melted their indignation by giving them a party.

Proudly we salute the football team which, as a result of teamwork and good coaching, played in the State Class A Semi-finals.

Arduous studies and extra-curricular activities have kept us busier than ever before. Although the work was difficult, we have thoroughly enjoyed publishing this sixth edition of the Blue Jay.

Now we are preparing a trip to Washington, D. C., to celebrate our last year together and our last year of high school.

Ever-present is the realization that soon we will embark upon a new phase of our life. With us go the memories of four wonderful years, our high school life.
